

BETTER QUESTIONS FOR SELF ADVOCACY

BEFORE VISITING THE SERVICE PROVIDER

- ✓ What do you most need to know?
- ✓ What do you need to tell the service provider?
- ✓ What is worrying you that you need to share with the service provider?
- ✓ What do you want to work with service provider to achieve?
- ✓ What questions would you like answered?
- ✓ What can the service provider do or say that will make you happy/worry less?
- ✓ What is the ideal result you would like?

WHEN VISITING THE SERVICE PROVIDER

- ✓ Provide information that is relevant

When they give you details here are some good questions to then ask:

- ✓ What will happen now?
- ✓ What do I need to do?
- ✓ In your expert opinion what does someone in this situation need to know?
- ✓ What help and support is available?
- ✓ Who is available to answer any more questions that I have?
- ✓ If I am worried, what should I do?

TIPS TO ASKING THE QUESTIONS

- Don't give your power away in other words stay as an 'equal'
 "No-one can make you feel inferior without your consent" Eleanor Roosevelt
- 2) Be assertive remember you have the right to ask these questions. Assertiveness is the ability to stand up for your rights in a calm and positive manner.

This is what I want/need..... This is what is important to me.....

- 3) Manage your 'state' breathe, stay relaxed and have positive thoughts It's OK, I have the right to ask these questions
- 4) Be persistent if you don't get the information needed ask the questions again or seek clarification

 Can I just clarify.... I still don't understand..... I still need to know....
- 5) Allow yourself time they may be rushed but you may need to ask them to slow down whilst you work out where you are at

 I just need you to slow down a bit please I need more time to understand....
- 6) Check in at the end of the conversation refer to your list or go through your mental checklist:
 - a. Did I get all the information I needed?
 - b. Am I clear on everything?
 - c. Is there anything else that I need to know?